

2010 Scrapbook Cover Competition

Once again we are after a neat picture or design that will grace the cover of the 2010 scrapbook and reflect the New Zealand environment.

- Kaupapa:* Pūmahara/ Reflection. Reflect on what it means to be an enviroschool, and represent that in your artwork. How does your school look and feel.... how do you feel about being a student at an enviroschool.... what is great about your school... etc
- Media:* Your design can be of any media as long as it can be posted safely and scanned. It could be created with pastel, pencil, crayon, felt, paint, collage or computer designed with photos.
- Format:* Designed on A4 paper, portrait size.
- Prize:* The glory of your design being on the cover of a National book!
A $150 book voucher for the winning entry.
A $40 book voucher for the four highly commended entries.
- Entry form:* Each design you submit must have a completed entry form attached to the back of it. Please write clearly so that we can send your entry back to you once the competition has closed.
- Timeframe:* Entries must be received by the 27th August 2010. Please send to:
The Enviroschools Foundation, PO Box 19 104, 223 Victoria Street, Hamilton.
- Details:* The winning entry will be placed on the front cover of the 2010 Enviroschools Scrapbook along with the artist's name, age and school. The top four highly commended entries will be placed on the back cover with the artists' name, age and school. The five winning students and their schools will each receive a free copy of the 2010 scrapbook.

The competition is open to any student from an enviroschool in Aotearoa.

We look forward to seeing your designs!
